

ORT DAY PROCLAIMED

A program of rehabilitation through training for the less fortunate sponsored by ORT throughout the world is being observed this month in the South Bay area. Tuesday was proclaimed "ORT Day" by Mayor Albert Isen of Torrance. At the signing are, from left, Mmes. Hy Bernstein, Albert Davis, and Lee Rothman, standing; Mrs. Ray Lavi, president of the local chapter, her son, Dale, 2½ years, having the proclamation explained by Mayor Isen. (Press-Herald Photo)

Worldwide Program

ORT Month Observed Here

The month of March has been designated as ORT (Organization for Rehabilitation through Training) Month and Tuesday, March 19, was proclaimed "ORT Day" by Mayor Albert Isen of Torrance. ORT's program is the rebuilding of lives through vocational training and its central creed is that man is best aided by being helped to become independent, self-supporting, and self-respecting. Throughout the world, ORT schools help to maintain this creed. In honor of this occasion,

Party Opens Rush Period

Rushing season for members and guests of Alpha Alpha Omega Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi Sorority, began with an informal party held Monday evening, March 11, at the Torrance home of Mrs. Paul Jordal, president. Decorations were in keeping with the theme "Happiness and paintings of the cartoon character, "Charlie Brown," were posted everywhere. Party games furnished the entertainment for the evening and prizes were awarded to Mmes. James Looch, Edward Andersson, Raymond Stocke and Edward P. Santella.

Italian Lodge Plans Dinner Dance Saturday

Serra Padre Lodge 232 of the Order of Italian Sons and Daughters will hold a spaghetti dinner and dance Saturday, March 23, at the St. Anthony of Padua Hall, 1050 163rd St., Gardena. Dinner will be served from 5:30 until 8:30 p.m. with dancing to a live band to begin at 9 p.m.

Auxiliary Plans Charities

Ladies Auxiliary to the Torrance Fire Department held its monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Milton Langum, 1754 243rd St., on Monday evening, March 4. The meeting was conducted by the president, Mrs. Bruce Smith. The main business included the final reading of revised bylaws. To replenish their "burned-out" family fund, the Auxiliary is collecting for a swap meet to be held later in March. Refreshments in keeping with the St. Patrick's Day theme were served by the hostess, Mrs. William Slo-necker won the door prize. After the meeting, members participated in making personal tray favors to be distributed at Del Amo Convalescent Home on Mother's Day. Members attending included Mmes. John Blain, Gary D'Onofrio, Denny Haas, Dennis Hansen, Samuel Kirkwood, Don Lamb, Milton Langum, Carl Marshall, Mac Oetting, C. E. Richardson, Edward Siminich, William Slo-necker, Bruce Smith, Kenneth Spaan, James Tarango, and Ronald...

Stanford Club Stages Scholarship Benefit

Invitations are out for the Scholarship Benefit to be presented by the Stanford Women's Club of Palos Verdes on Tuesday, March 26, aboard the SS Princess Louise. A social hour will be held at 11:30 a.m. followed by a luncheon at 12 noon. During the luncheon, a parade of new spring and summer fashions will be shown. After the luncheon and show, bridge will be played.

Proceeds from this benefit will go towards a scholarship for a Stanford University student from the South Bay area.

Mrs. Robert Robinson, 28719 King Arthur Court, Palos Verdes Peninsula, should be contacted for reservations before March 10.

Y Maidens Will Sponsor Movie Benefit

Kap-ka Council of the Torrance YMCA Indian Maidens, as a fund-raising project, is sponsoring a morning movie "Indian Paint," starring Johnny Crawford and Jay Silverheels, at the Rolling Hills Theatre on March 30 at 9:30 p.m.

On the committee for the scholarship event are Mmes. Clayton McGill, Miraleste, chairman; Theodore Reynolds, Rolling Hills Estates, assistant chairman; William Steine, Palos Verdes Peninsula, decorations; Anthony Mosich, San Pedro, fashion show.

Others are Mmes. Gordon Galloway, San Pedro, program; James Pollock and David Kirbach, Miraleste, door prizes; Ralph Brogdon, Redondo Beach, publicity; Robert Graham, Rolling Hills Estates, bridge.

Little League St. Pat Dance Next Saturday

A little of the Irish will set the mood when North Torrance Little League East sponsors a St. Patrick's Dance, Saturday, March 23, at the American Legion Hall, 1109 Van Ness Ave., Torrance. Music will be furnished by The Romm-Anties from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. Casual dress is appropriate for this occasion. Door prizes will be awarded. The first prize is a portable TV. Winner need not be present. Tickets may be purchased at the door or from any league board member. According to League President Bob Stephens, proceeds will go towards new equipment for the new field at 19200 South Van Ness Ave.

Open House At Nursery Set Sunday

The public has been invited to attend an Open House at Torrance Cooperative Nursery School, 4558 W. 182nd St., Sunday, March 24, from 2 to 4 p.m.

Children are especially welcome to accompany their parents, according to Joseph Rizzo, coop president. Purpose of the open house is to acquaint the public with the school, which is sponsored by the adult education division of the Torrance Unified School District. Parent-participation classes are held four mornings a week, with emphasis on the individual child and his physical, emotional, and social needs. Registration for September enrollment is open to all South Bay residents, Rizzo stated. Further information may be obtained by calling Mrs. James Williams.

Camp Fire Girls Hike To Park

Wakata Camp Fire Girls of Arnold School learned to read a compass, lay a trail and build a fire on their hike last Saturday to the Torrance Park. They also learned to build and use a reflector oven, in which they made pizza.

Accompanied by their guardian, Mrs. William C. Fisher, and assistant guardian, Mrs. Joe Crabtree, girls making the trip were Kathy Conway, Lynn Anderson, Terri Conway, Debbie Crabtree, Kathy Cummings, Kathi Fisher, Kristi Fisher, Dawn Gust, Jilyn Huddleston, Mary Kleist, Laura Nottke, Valerie Riggiano, Linda Thorn and Jodi Wolfinger.

Local Club Hosts Board

Torrance Woman's Club was hostess to the Marina District 18 Executive Board luncheon and meeting on March 1 at the clubhouse.

Mrs. A. E. Glad, Marina District president, was the presiding officer. Highlights of the year were given by officers and chairmen at this last board meeting of the club year.

Mrs. Henry Heinlein was chairman for the luncheon. She was assisted by Mmes. R. E. Shaw, Dale Blevin, Bernard Gold, Leslie Steigh, Ervin Moudy, I. M. Avent and D. A. Cressey.
